PRESS RELEASE: NEW EMPLOYEE

December 11, 2013

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MARTIN, TENN. (December 2013) – The Hamilton-Ryker Company is proud to announce and welcome Ydaisa Gomez as its new Bi-lingual Staffing Coordinator for their Lexington, Kentucky branch office

Born in Puerto Rico, raised in Dominican Republic, Ydaisa moved to Lexington, Kentucky in 1992 and has also resided in Florida and California where most of her family members live.

Gomez attended The University of Kentucky earning a BA in Psychology. This past spring, she graduated from Midway College with an MBA. She brings to us years of experience in Social Services working for the Lexington Fayette County Health Department in Communicable Diseases and as a Family Support Worker recruiting and providing community education. She has also worked as a patient advocate for the Jewish Hospital, worked with troubled children and foster care, mentally challenged adults and a detox center.

Ydaisa will report to Jennifer Hager, Regional Director of Commercial Staffing. “We are very excited to have Yda Gomez join our Commercial Staffing Group. Hamilton-Ryker prides itself on providing superior customer service to our clients. Yda brings a wealth of experience in the customer service field to allow us to grow with our clients.”
